Pregnancy Options Counseling Certification

Training Options for CSU Health Centers

Learn how to provide person-centered options counseling informed by medically accurate information about pregnancy, parenting, abortion and adoption. This training is essential for all staff at campus health centers who counsel or educate students about their pregnancy options.

After this training student health center staff will be more comfortable:

- Identifying the range of personal opinions and beliefs concerning pregnancy options
- Describing key elements of all options: parenting, adoption, and abortion in a non-directive way
- Creating and sharing person-centered, helpful pregnancy options referrals for students
- Conducting an unbiased, non-judgmental pregnancy options counseling session
