

MARCH 2 CONFERENCE AGENDA AT-A-GLANCE

9:00 - 9:15 AM WELCOME

9:15 - 9:55 AM MORNING PLENARY

Presenter: Lynn Roberts, PhD
Moderator: Nomsa Khalfani, PhD

Dr. Lynn Roberts will trace her trajectory from research subject to scholar activist. She will share insights from the field on how the reproductive justice movement is contesting and reimagining the public health discourse and response to racial disparities in sexual and reproductive health.

10:00 – 11:30 AM CLINICAL UPDATES

Presenters: Teresa DePiñeres, MD, MPH; Ina Park, MD, MPH; Jennefer Russo, MD, MPH; George Sawaya, MD
Moderator: Erin Saleeby, MD, MPH

Nationally recognized experts in the field will present clinical updates and best practices for delivering sexual and reproductive health care based on current guidelines. Clinical topics will include cervical cancer screening, innovations in STD prevention and treatment, indications and management of early pregnancy loss, and the provision of medication abortion.

11:30 – 12:00 PM BREAK

Grab lunch and visit our Sponsors and Exhibitors to register for giveaways and drawings.

12:00 – 1:00 PM LUNCH PLENARY

Presenter: Jamila Perritt, MD, MPH
Moderator: Nomsa Khalfani, PhD

This plenary will feature Dr. Perritt, President and CEO of Physicians for Reproductive Health. Dr. Perritt will discuss the critical importance of leveraging medical science and elevating provider voices to shift public narratives and reshape policies that advance reproductive health and justice.

1:00 – 1:45 PM POLICY UPDATES: A NEW CHAPTER FOR ACCESS

Presenters: Fabiola Carrion, J.D.; Nourbese Flint; Lisa Matsubara, J.D.
Moderator: Amy Moy

The results of the 2020 federal election will have a significant impact on sexual and reproductive health access nationwide. Panelists will share public policy updates and the changes needed at the state and federal levels to improve sexual and reproductive health outcomes and advance health equity moving forward.

1:45 - 2:00 PM BREAK

Visit Exhibitors and connect with Sponsors.

2:00 – 3:00 PM TELEHEALTH PANEL

Presenters: Yohualli Balderas-Medina Anaya, MD; Judith Emmons, MPH; Evelyn Kieltyka, MSN, MS, FNP
Moderator: Dr. Michael Policar, MD, MPH

Adoption of telehealth modalities during COVID-19 has protected access to time sensitive and routine health services, particularly for patient populations that already face structural barriers to care. Panelists will share best practices and tools for providing and sustaining the delivery of patient-centered sexual and reproductive health services through telehealth during the public health emergency and beyond.

3:15 – 4:00 PM THE FUTURE OF CONTRACEPTION

Presenter: Alison Edelman, MD, MPH
Moderator: Kimberly D. Gregory, MD, MPH

Dr. Alison Edelman will provide an overview of recent pre-clinical and clinical developments in contraceptive technology and research, including reasons why new approaches to contraception and contraceptive research are needed.

4:00 – 4:15 PM CLOSING REMARKS